

JCPA Leadership Mission to Israel 2017

December 3-8, 2017*

The JCPA leadership mission aims to ensure that JCPA leaders are well-equipped to help the community relations field be effective and nuanced advocates for Israel.

On the mission you will meet with:

- High level diplomatic officials, foreign service, and Knesset members
- Leaders of religious groups
- Leaders of different faith communities
- Leaders of minority groups

These meetings will provide attendees with firsthand knowledge about Israel's effort to pursue peace, advance pluralism, and protect its security.

The mission will explore a number of key questions including:

- What is the status of efforts to advance peace and the two-state solution?
- What is the current situation on the ground relating to settlements and are they an impediment for peace?
- How are Israeli Jews and Palestinians making progress on building a shared society?
- What is the status of Jewish pluralism and racial and gender equity in Israel?
- How is Israel fighting growing delegitimization efforts and anti-Semitism around the world?
- How is Israel helping Syrian refugees?

The estimated cost is $2,900 plus $721 for a single supplement, and includes room, board, meals and land transportation. Airfare is not included.

For more information, please visit <http://jewishpublicaffairs.org/2017mission/> or email Melanie Roth Gorelick at mgorelick@thejcpa.org or Haya Luftig at hluftig@thejcpa.org.

* Additional Shabbat programming will be optional on December 8-9.

